Daily Assignments and Comments

The Daily Assignments and Comments page now has a more consolidated, intuitive design that displays only an Upcoming and Graded tab. Through these tabs, Parents and Students can easily review upcoming, current and past homework assignments that are scheduled for a student’s course work. The functionality of the Missing tab in the previous version of My Backpack has been replaced with a  yellow icon that appears in the left column of the Graded tab, which indicates a missing assignment.
